

Don't Yet Have a Fraser Valley Regional Library Card?

Sign Up Online for an eCard and Get Instant Access to Our Digital Content Collection 24/7.

Fraser Valley Regional Library (FVRL) is here to delight and entertain you! Don't already have an FVRL card? Sign up for an eCard today at <https://onlineregistration.fvrl.bc.ca/> and get instant access to all of our digital content, including eBooks, audiobooks, magazines, streaming movies and TV, eLearning, and more!

"FVRL is here to support all of our community members by making our digital content accessible," says Heather Scoular, Director of Customer Experience. "The introduction of the eCard is one of the many ways FVRL has evolved its services over the past month to best serve the community how and where they need it. The library can help keep you stay connected, while we keep apart."

FVRL's dynamic collection of digital content includes access to popular eContent providers including OverDrive, RBdigital, Acorn TV, Kanopy, Mango Languages, Lynda.com and many more.

Connect and engage with FVRL on social by searching ReadLearnPlay on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter. FVRL's digital content is available online 24/7 at www.fvrl.ca – free with an FVRL card to the residents of our member municipalities.

About Fraser Valley Regional Library

Fraser Valley Regional Library is the largest public library system in British Columbia, with 25 community libraries serving almost 700,000 people in its service area. Established in 1930, it is funded with taxes raised in the communities it serves, plus a Government of BC operating grant. The governing board consists of elected officials representing 15 member municipalities and regional districts. With its mission of "opening minds, enabling dreams," FVRL plays a prominent role in the communities throughout the Fraser Valley.
