PRIVATE EYE DETECTIVE AGENCY HEADQUARTERS

Detective, your phone is ringing . . . Answer it!

Pepe: "Hi Detective! Could you please come down to my pizzeria? A waitress who works at my restaurant, Hayley Humble, reported seeing a grumpy ghost in the kitchen last night. She said that the ghost was so grumpy, he told her to leave and to never come back to this kitchen. Hayley is now too scared to come into work for her shift tonight and sadly, I am unable to find someone to replace her. To make the issue worse, now some of the other staff members are also feeling too afraid to come to work after hearing her story. Being understaffed is going to be stressful during the dinner rush this evening."

You ask Pepe how he wants you to help.

Pepe: "Detective, I need you to come and investigate this case of the Grumpy Ghost to help shed some light on this situation. I'm so confused because I've never seen a ghost before. To be honest, detective, I've never believed in ghosts either. Maybe if you can figure out more information about what happened, we can put my staff members at ease about coming in to work."

You tell Pepe that you will be on your way to inspect his pizzeria for clues shortly. Because of the situation, you ask that Pepe doesn't touch anything until you have finished searching the crime scene.

On the following three pages you will find Case File templates that you will be using to solve the Case of the Grumpy Ghost. Keep these handy for taking notes, jotting down important clues, and adding any suspects or evidence you find during your investigation.
Good luck detective!
